20 Questions to Ask on Your CCRC Tour

A Continuing Care Retirement Community (CCRC) is one of the largest financial and lifestyle decisions a person can make. These questions protect you.

Contract & Financial Structure

1. What type of contract is offered? Type A (all-inclusive), Type B (modified), or Type C (fee-for-service)?
2. What is the entrance fee, and how much is refundable — and under what conditions?
3. What does the monthly fee include? What triggers additional charges?
4. How often and by how much have monthly fees increased over the past five years?
5. What happens if I outlive my financial resources? Is there a benevolence fund or Medicaid acceptance?

Financial Health of the Organization

6. Can I see the community's most recent audited financial statements?
7. What is the current occupancy rate across all levels of care?
8. Is this community part of a larger nonprofit or for-profit organization?
9. Has the community ever been in financial distress, changed ownership, or been acquired?
10. Is the community accredited by CARF or another body?

Continuum of Care

11. What levels of care are available on this campus? (Independent, assisted, memory care, skilled nursing)

12. Is priority access to higher levels of care guaranteed in my contract?
13. What triggers a move from one level of care to another, and who makes that decision?
14. Can I return to independent living after a skilled nursing stay?
15. Are hospice services available on-site?

Daily Life & Community

16. What does the independent living lifestyle look like? Activities, dining, transportation?
17. How are residents involved in governance and community decisions?
18. Can I bring my pet?
19. What is the visitor and guest policy? Can family members stay?

Transparency

20. Can I speak with a current resident and a family member of someone in the care center?

Have an independent financial advisor and an elder law attorney review the contract before signing. This is not optional.
